This month’s member spotlight features Ciera Bates-Chamberlain, executive director of Live Free Illinois. Bates-Chamberlain was born and raised on the Southside of Chicago. She is committed to furthering the fight for social and economic justice by strengthening communities through radical theology.