This month’s spotlighted member is Elizabeth Glazer, founder of Vital City. In her interview, Glazer argues that public safety extends beyond policing to include evidence-based civic investments like street lighting and summer youth employment, and reflects on the emotional and political significance of New York City’s decision to close Rikers Island.