This month’s spotlighted member is Janos Marton, chief advocacy officer at Dream.Org. In his interview, Marton emphasizes the importance of recognizing the criminal justice system’s impacts on families and communities and ensuring those impacts are part of the broader conversation around justice and public safety.